Can't explain, I can only say I've changed
Can't explain, I just hope I'm not too late
What have I done?
What have I done to you?

I wish you could erase your mind every time I ever made you cry
Turn into your head so I could change your memories
Turn 'em into something good if I ever got a chance to improve
Everything I've got to get you back
I would sacrifice, sacrifice

Can't explain, it wasn't anybody else
Can't explain, I was running from myself
What can I say?
My big mistake

I wish you could erase your mind every time I ever made you cry
Turn into your head so I could change your memories
Turn 'em into something good if I ever got a chance to improve
Everything I've got to get you back
I would sacrifice, sacrifice

I don't wanna end this story like this
I've gotta keep myself believing, believing you'll come back to me
Maybe when I wake tomorrow you'll be here, be here

I wish you could erase your mind every time I ever made you cry
Turn into your head so I could change your memories
Turn 'em into something good if I ever got a chance to improve
Everything I've got to get you back
I would sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice
