I called you up again, this is not any day
It's the day that you say you love me
All my dreams are in your hands, you've been hiding away
You've been scared and you may just leave me
I still have faith
There is no one in second place
Would I lie to you, did I ever break the truce?
Am I just another puzzle for your thoughts?
Every day is new, but I feel so used
Would an ordinary love be so... complicated Still I hold on Complicated
I remember when we met, how you saved me from debt
You rerouted me from certain death
So I gave my life to you
We're expecting number two
We have reached the point where I can't live without you
Am I losing faith?
I can't be in second place
And still I hold on, complicated
While you're moving on Why do I hold on?.
