Bless your eyes
There's no secret lies
It's you, I came in this joint to see
And the stars are bright
And they're out tonight
It's true, the pollution is hiding them from...
Your eyes, I haven't seen them today
All the time that you've been near
Close to see the beauty in the spheres
Am I fading after all these years
Leave me for dead
And I'm glad I did
Like an eBay bid
It was time to sell it while it was worth something
I'm all sobered up
And my time's not up
I'm glad I didn't wait for the last call
Bless your eyes...
