Six o'clock in the morning, I'm yawning
Get out of this bed
My heart started racing, now pacing
What was that you said?

Waiting so long for this day
And tomorrow we laugh
Hope the neighbors will open their papers
To my photograph

Of course I love you and I'll be careful
Oh, so careful but I must win
There's no use waiting, watching, waiting
Got to keep my five star rating, too

Now I run like the devil, draw level
You're crowding my day
Your concentration gives me stimulation
Get out of my way

Feel the air rush past my face in first place
Without thought to me
Mass attention becomes an extension
Oh winning to me

Of course I love you and I'll be careful
Oh, so careful but I must win
There's no use waiting, watching, waiting
Got to keep my five star rating, too

In control, speed kills, speed thrills
We are the power, come closer
Black and white soon in my time
The winning course, it's over
The winning course, take over
The winning course, it's up to me

Now I run like the devil, draw level
You're crowding my day
Your concentration gives me stimulation
Get out of my way

Of course I love you and I'll be careful
Oh, so careful but I must win
There's no use waiting, watching, waiting
Got to keep my five star rating, too
