Love of my life
Where are you now on this earth
Safe and secure as the deep ocean floor
You were always there
You're on my mind
Longing for you in my life
On a white horse we would ride like the wind
All the loving times
All of my love all my emotion
Always there calling me
Anytime reach out and I'll be there
And though we're far apart
We'll always have our love
We'll always be the same
So look in the sky
We share the moon and stars
For all eternity
The road is long and I am with you never-ending
We're walking along in the sunshine
Here in my heart
Floating in a gondola of dreams
You will appear as the mist disappears
I will hear our song
When you are gone
To a place in the sun
Silence is heard all the wondrous words
You're the only one
All my love and emotion
Always there calling to me
Anytime reach out and I'll be there
And though we're far apart
We'll always have our love
We'll always be the same
So look into the sky
We share the moon and stars
For all eternity
The road is long and I am with you never-ending
We're walking along in the sunshine
