Lightning strikes down to Earth
A fallen angels has his rebirth
He comes from the other side
To take a hellish ride
But there's rock'nroll, hard rock, and metal facing the demon's call.
He jumps to the bar across the street
following the music, feeling the heat

Demon

Join us, we got the same blood
There are no sins, we just like it hot

Demon

This night you'll never forget,
You'll learn how it is to be a metal head.

Blood - Blood - Blood - Blood of the demon!
Drinking, fucking, puking, rocking
Show this demon what metal's about
Now all together, shout it out loud!
Blood - Blood - Blood - Blood of the demon!
Blood - Demon - Blood We got demon blood!

Town is a bloodstained battleground
Finally he likes what he found.
Doing anything he smells destruction,
violence and total madness is here.
His black corrosive blood is boiling
Never thought there were demons on earth too.
He has found his army of darkness
And all who stands in our way is a fool.
Killing all priests - riding the beast
It's our blood feast - Metal's unleashed
