I'm caught in a trap
with my back against the wall Long way to go with so much room to fall Twisting my words
holding them against me Backed into a corner
no stories to defend me

Caught in a
Caught in a trap Cut me some Cut me some slack

I thought it was over not the story at all The word had spread far, wide, and tall
My privacy's gone
should have known it would come My life is your life care to join the fun?

Could you cut me some slack?
