I believe that you are falling from the surface
(I know that it's true)
You can see the sun shining on the others
(That's all you can do)
Nothing you did, nothing you said
Never meant a thing at all
All you can do is run for your life
From the fire that brings you down

Trying to find a way, living in the shadows
Feel it comes for you surrounded by a shadow

Take my hand I'll lead you all through the darkness
(That's all I can do)
You will dream away, never understand it
(It's like I can't get it through)
Nothing you did, nothing you said
Never meant a thing a all
All you can do is run for your life
From the fire that brings you down

Trying to find a way, living in the shadows
Feel it comes for you surrounded by a shadow

Maybe one day you'll see, the way to find all you ever need
Then I'll come for you to rescue you
You will survive in the shadows
In the shadows...

I'll find a way in the dark
Never thought I'll fall back to the start
The shadows are fading away
Cause I'm gonna make, make it through

Trying to find a way, living in the shadows
Feel it comes for you surrounded by a shadow
