You said to me, why can't you stay no more
You wish that I could finally change my mind
I thought that you wasted all the time in a thousand long ways
But now I slowly understand that I'm never gonna make it

Too far away
Why did I take my chances
I see the look I had is washed away
You're never gonna smile at me
Cause you're only gonna say I'm too far away

I was cool, felt bad
I could be on the road forever
You wait everytime
For a short standing on the doorstep
But all that we name it is an emptiness in my heart
And it was slowly gonna fall if I'm never gonna see you

Too far away
Why did I take my chances
I see the look I had (if I'm never gonna see you)
Too far away
Why did I take my chances
I see the look I had is washed away
You're never gonna smile at me
Cause you're only gonna say I'm too far away

Too far away

Too far away
Why did I take my chances
I see the look I had is washed away
Too far away
Why did I take my chances
I see the look I had is washed away
You're never gonna smile at me
Cause you're only gonna say I'm too far away
