Our days we fake it
Our smiles are wasted
But no one sees it now

They say we're no use
Don't know what we're worth
But we will show them how

So take this eyes and break up lines
'Cause knowing nothing is what you'll find...

And only the hurt we know
What scars made of
And once made of...

The lives are broken
With past unspoken
But who are you to say

The cries mean nothing
And I know there's something
And no one dare takes blame

So take this lies and break up lines
'Cause knowing nothing is what you'll find...

And only the hurt we know
Now scars made of
And once made of...

And only the hurt we know
Now scars made of
And once made of...

Now scars are fading
Now scars are fading
Now scars
And all I feel inside
They fade.
