"Eva's Pond"

When I meet you, rainy day
You were so wild, I was afraid
Then you said take my hand
We'll go to Eva's Pond
Sail away
Early morning, In Phoenicia
We had arrived
Only to find many questions there
Guard us, sleepless
In this place where love is endless and so pure, is so pure
High above here, on a mountain
Watching the world, making no sound,
We became lovers then
As night turned to into day
Blue to gold
When I meet you, rainy day
How could I know
Our love would grow with a grace so rare
Guard us, keep us
Guide us, sleepless
In this love where time is endless, evermore, evermore

Annie Haslam-lead vocals
Mickey Simmonds-keyboards
