

Ren & Stimpy ''Reaching Out''

Visit "Reaching Out" on MotoLyrics.com

We're lost and alone and we're drifting forever Don't know where we are and we'll never no, never Go home to our earth, far away just a dot on the screen Never seen, but she's never forgotten Forgotten ... forgotten

Born to be born on the wings of creation We were the first now we're tenth generation Our guidance control lies aloof and dismembered Our ship has forgotten but we have remembered Remembered ... remembered

Mountains and forests bright, shining streams A place where man was always meant to be Oh how we miss you, we're reaching out We're reaching out, we're reaching out We're reaching out ... reaching out For you ... for you
