I need to figure this out
And find where my place is
I don't mean to threaten anyone
No need to get so defensive

You say you're with me
I know you don't care
You say you're with me
I know you don't care

I guess it's real simple
It's just like when Gary Newman said
You're just a viewer cold and distant
You are just business you're worthless

You say you're with me
I know you don't care
You say you're with me
I know you don't care

Sweetness
I need some tenderness
Sweetness
I need some tenderness

You know it's just like Judas said
I've been your right hand man all along
My admiration for you hasn't died
I haven't forgotten how put down? we are

You say you're with me
I know you don't care
You say you're with me
I know you don't care

Sweetness
I need some tenderness
Sweetness
I need some tenderness
Come away with me
Come away with me
Sweetness

Come away with me
We can hide in peace
And we can finally rest

This melody's wrong
And I do care
This melody's wrong
Yes I care
