You said you'd never let me go
Now I'm here, feeling so alone
I shoulda never run away
Now I'm living in my mistakes

One touch can take away this pain
But Your love seems so far away
What am I supposed to do
I wish I could get close to You

Oh Can You hear my cry

I'm calling out to You
In the middle of the night
I don't know what to do, I'm torn up inside
So I'm calling out to You
With everything in me
I'm fighting to get through, with the strength to believe
So I'm calling out to You

I said, I'd never let you down
Now I need to feel You here right now
I wish I would've never lied
I'm sorry for saying goodbye

I feel that I can hardly breathe
Cause I'm not who I thought I would be
My heart is broken up inside
I just need a place to run and hide

Oh Can You hear my cry

I'm calling out to You
In the middle of the night
I don't know what to do, I'm torn up inside
So I'm calling out to You
With everything in me
I'm fighting to get through, with the strength to believe
So I'm calling out to You

With tears running down my face
I never wanna leave this place
Cause I know You're always there for me
You're all I need
And every time I run away
I know that Your love remains
And I know You're always there for me

I'm calling out to You
In the middle of the night
I don't know what to do
I'm torn up inside

Cause I'm calling out to You
In the middle of the night
I don't know what to do

Cause I'm calling out to You
I don't know what to do

So I'm calling out to You
So I'm calling out to You
