Well, if you're ever in a tight spot
And all the things around you are gettin' hot
Come to me and I can cool you off

And if you ever get yourself in a jam
And if you ever feel you need to find a man
Call my number and darling, you found one

But I know now, it can never work out
The way I really wished that it would
But a second-hand love is better than no love at all

And the walls get a little closer
And my throat gets a little tighter when I say to you
That a second-hand love from you is better than no
love at all
Any kind of love from you is better than no love at all

If you got the feeling it ain't right tonight
And if the fire at home ain't as hot as you like
I've got a fire that's burning for you

And if you ever feel you need to get away
To get away from the rest of your life
I'll come runnin' and show you the world

But I know now, it can never work out
The way I really wished that it would
But a second-hand love is better than no love at all

Any kind of love from you is better than no love at all
Any kind of love from you is better than no love at all

And the walls get a little closer
And my throat gets a little tighter when I say to you
That a second-hand love from you is better than no
love at all
Any kind of love from you is better than no love at all

Any kind of love from you, any kind of love from you
Any kind of love from you is better than no love at all
