I need love now that im older i need truth to soak me to the bone i need my friends all around me now cause im not doing real well when im alone you see my best friend at least i thought she was has found herself a new friend back at home Im drifting here on whats left of my heart and my spirit is floatin like a storm

Now my faith is an illusion my dreams some passing ship im reaching out for answers but im losing my grip

Now tell me

Are you gonna go the distance step into the cold hard rain are you gonna keep fighting through and come back again

Ill forgive you just as is Ask your mercy for my own Ive gone as far as i can go
Now its up to you to find your own way home find your own way home x 3

I need time theres no time my emotions have dipped into the red In this vision that i just cant wash away is chairin in my head and i believe in redemption there is hope for every soul but i cant wait forever for a miracle

so tell me

Ive gone as far as i can go
Now its up to you to find your own way home

Somedays i feel like lettin go Im holdin on for so long do i need to walk away to see how it feels when im wrong

so tell me

come back again

Ill forgive you just as is

find your own way home
find your own way home

Gotta find your way
