Walking all alone in the dead end, the gypsy wants us
all around, yeah

I took your fare, I paid your party

There's a hell to spent above these clowns, oh hey hey

And nobody knows where we're going too far

Something for sure or we got it booted, oh hey!

Down to the tough sweet mountain, yeah

There's a psychic woman under in Old North

Do y'all wanna set this speed off, baby?

I persuade you don't I have my fill? Oh hey hey

And nobody knows where we're going too far, yeah

Something was sure or we gotta do, oh hey!

Maybe we got no direction. Said we got no place to go, no no.

She shoved all our batch end; am I just a big wad blow?

Yeah yeah

Gypsy woman's passion, said I'm not gonna let you go

What'd I say, anyway, let's get on with it!

Watch out!

Now the queens they're humping back

And we made it on our train, heading south down the tracks

She comes to me however that you'll see (?)

Our only self is a gypsy need, yeah

And nobody knows where we're going too far, yeah

Something for sure or we gotta do, oh hey! Hell, fucking great!

We got no direction. Said we got no place to go, no no.

She shoved all our batch end; am I just a big wad blow?

Yeah yeah

Gypsy woman's passion, said I'm not gonna let you go

What'd I say, anyway, let's take it on home, yeah!
