Lost, lost in a dream it's a dream
And I think, some evil scheme
They say, that I don't feel, what I feel
But I know, that this ain't no game

What am I supposed to lie? That ain't what I'm saying
You're telling me that I could be a little insane
I told myself to pull myself together again
'Cause I ain't been the same

Lost, lost in a dream it's a dream
But I know, that this ain't no game

What am I supposed to lie? That ain't what I'm saying
Telling me that I could be a little insane, yeah
I told myself to pull myself together again
'Cause I ain't been the same
