Perfect is tonight
It's opened up to find
No matter what I say you're a substitute for my pride
It's terrible to see
A new accessory
No matter what I say you're just filling a void in me

Chorus:
But it's better to know the girl inside
You're always running towards the needs that you recognize
When it's better to leave the love behind
'cause you're the wrong man, at the wrong time
In my life

You don't
You don't
You won't
You won't belong

Wasted is today
Another pill to take
I know the hate is equal to the love we make
To you I don't belong
When the trust has gone
I know the games we play aren't fooling anyone

Repeat chorus
