I can't remember what she said
Last night it's in my head
I can't remember a word she said
Last night we were in bed
I can't remember a word she said
I can't keep on going on

One step closer to your grave
One step closer to your grave
One step closer to your grave
Your one step closer to your grave

No one can help me anymore
Nothing can save me now
I'm drowning
Feels like I'm under water
I can't get back on top
Struggling to find a breath of air
