Open
Open up your mind
Stand up straight
And everything will be fine

I know you've been alone
For a while and you
Thought that it would last
You've got to concentrate
And forget about the past

Open
Open up your mind
Stand up straight
And everything will be fine

I know the pain
Your going through
But it's only passing by

And I know the pain
Your going through
But please remember
That any time
You can come my way
It's your fault
It's my fault
Who cares
Lets do it all again

Open
Open up your mind
Stand up straight
And everything will be fine
