I'm headin' on track, I'm turnin' on back
'Cause honey don't know she complete my life
'Cause I wasn't all in, I'm done with all that
And now I gotta let him know

Said you never lookin' back but gimme one try
You say I'm still the same but I changed my path
You're better than the best, forever no lie
And I don't wanna be here lonely

I don't wanna stay away for another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And I won't throw my promises away, yeah
I don't wanna stay away, I don't want nobody but you

You say you don't buy, how hard I'm gonna try
I'll never give up, gonna change your mind
With a little romance, and maybe you'll find
That now I'm gonna make a show

No we're never lookin' back, just leave it in the past
I'll never be that same 'cause you changed my path
You know I love you best, forever no lie
And I don't wanna be here lonely

I don't wanna stay away for another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And I won't throw my promises away, yeah
I don't wanna stay away, I don't want nobody but you

And if I have to live in a lifetime
Without all the ways you make me feel
Then I'd have to lose my mind
I'd be so broken into pieces over you

See I can't stay away from you
I can't erase the two of us from my mind
Whenever I try, it's like a backfire
Blast from the past, I can see through

Mirror, mirror on the wall
How'd I ever let you fall?
I guess I need my baby baby
Whoa whoa whoa!

I don't wanna stay away for another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And I won't throw my promises away, yeah

I don't wanna stay away for another second baby
Lemme lemme say everything
You're the only one worth fighting for
And I won't throw my promises away, yeah
I don't wanna stay away, I don't want nobody
I don't wanna stay away, I don't want nobody but you
