It's dark in here tonight A great place to come and hide from the blues Hey, I don't mean to intrude But I've seen that look before I've heard that slamming door too Just like you (Chorus) I know that hurt by heart I've been right where you are I know how it feels when your world is falling apart You're not alone tonight I know what lonely is like I've still got the scars I know that hurt by heart Hope you don't take this wrong But that smile you're putting on can't disguise these tears in your eyes and laughing like you don't care Can't ease the pain down there inside beleive me, I've tried (Repeat Chorus) (Tag) You're not alone tonight I know what lonely is like I've still got the scars I know that Hurt by Heart I've still got the scars I Know that hurt by Heart
