like anyone I knew a dave drove a Plymouth shallow grave said, "my girl don't just walk, she unfurls" with motorcycle language he stumbled through his slang pledge then he dragged the mud for wedding pearls chorus

he closed both his eyes and sort of gave her a kiss said "don't worry baby about what you're gonna miss there will always be a much much more than this everytime you go, you are all I see holding out for you and me pulled down his birthday suitcase brown with dust from no place said, "I think its time we made a start" they danced the waltz of charity no car garage, two kids for free they were pissing bliss and playing parts

she closed both her eyes, sorta gave him a kiss...

and the big snake pit and we dance to the edge of it and we laugh and we laugh cause we ain't seen the edge of it

holding out for you and me you and me you and me you and me
