"Peace Of Mind"

When I came to think about all those wasted years
Don't even understand how I lived my life?
Could I've unlocked the door sooner than I did?
It's all in history, now I'm grateful that I live
I played with fire maybe much too long
I was hunting high and hunting low
For every little thrill
Before I reached the sign that made me wanna stay
Another sign of life was handed on a tray
Big choices begin
Turn all those questions inside out
And find that missing piece
Peace of mind
We all need a place to hide when the world is rough outside
Peace of mind
I needed more than this normal life could give Been known to use my fist when someone hurt my pride
When I go back in time
At least in my mind
I wonder why I fought when everyone was kind
They're all afraid of me, I hear run away feet
They gave me all I want, didn't stand in my way
But there she was, turn night into day
Once again a choice was handed on a tray
