I hear a sound when I'm trying to sleep
I know I'm alone in the house
But I hear someone who's breathing deep
I know I can't be right
When I reach out to turn on the light
I can't believe my eyes
I'm too scared, I'm paralyzed
I hear a call in the night
I see a spark or a fading light
I'm tossing and turning
Afraid what I'm learning
A demon is haunting my house
What can I do? Is this just an illusion?
I'm haunted at night
But there's nothing to fight
When I turn on the light
Am I on the other side?
Or am I trapped in a shadowland?
I know I can not hide, but I'm scared
I'm paralyzed
I hear a call in the night
I see a spark or a fading light
I'm tossing and turning
Afraid what I'm learning
Someone is inside my house
Save me, save me'
Guitar Solo: Bob Katsionis
It feels like I'm running out of time
I'm calling out to you
I need to end this nightmare before it begins
