You wake up thinking you're safe from misery and pain
of the world

But you hide from yourself that you're away from reality

For sure we don't exist as what we are or believe to be
And forget the things you promised me to reach

But I'll stand against the ones who dare to cross my way

Don't refuse x3
To be

A fighter!
For good!

A fighter!
For will!

A fighter!
For power!

A fighter!
For pain!

And still here I'm trying to get by
But despite all that had befallen me I'm still alive
Nevermind my life I'm glad for what I have
To find your goal in life you should search far, far away

But I'll stand against the ones who dare to cross my way

Don't refuse x3
To be

A fighter!
For good!

A fighter!
For will!

A fighter!

For power!

A fighter!
For pain!

The world out there hasn't changed
So I can't leave, because I believe
There is a greater good
I must stay, because I'm...

A fighter!
For good!

A fighter!
For will!

A fighter!
For power!

A fighter!
For pain!

Fighter x4
