Well the drums rolled off in my forehead
And the guns went off in my chest
Remember carrying the baby for you Crying in the wilderness

I lost track of my friends, I lost my kin
I cut them off as limbs
I drove out over the flatlands hunting down you and him

The sky was big and empty
My chest filled to explode
I yelled my insides out at the sun
At the wide open road

It's a wide open road,
It's a wide open road

How do you think it feels,
sleeping by yourself?
When the one you love,
the one you love
Is with someone else

Then it's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
And now you can go any place, that you ever wanted to go

I wake up in the morning thinking I'm still by your side I reach out just to touch you then I realise

It's a wide open road,
It's a wide open road
