CALM BEFORE THE STORM

4:05 BMI/ASCAP - written by Van Stephenson/Dave

Robbins/Bob Farrell

Well you blow through here

Like you own this town

Like a hurricane

You never touch down

I hear the sound of the thunder

I start to tremble slow

I know it won't be long until the whole thing blows

[CHORUS:]

Somebody's gonna get hurt

Somebody's gonna go down

Just when you think it's over

It's gonna come back around

You're just headed for trouble

Don't say you haven't been warned

You'd better get out on the double

It's just the calm before the storm

You've got nobody

You can call your own

Everything you touch

Just turns to stone

Someday you're gonna wake up

And it'll all be gone

And you'll realize everything you did was wrong

[REPEAT CHORUS]
