"Take This Heart"

I look into the mirror and I see my one an' only enemy
And he wont go away
And every time it hurts so bad I wish you were here
To share what we had
The truth is hard what can I say
It's getting harder every living day
Take this heart and heal it make it start make me feel it
Do it now
Take this heart and heal it can't you see how bad I need it
Do it now
To many days on the road I guess I left you waiting cold
Yeah it cuts like a knife
Now I'm the one who bleeds inside and it's all up to you babe
To make up your mind
The truth is hard what can I say
It's getting harder every living day
Take this heart and heal it make it start make me feel it
Do it now
Take this heart and heal it can't you see how bad I need
it
Do it now
