The streets are cold, awash with pain
For who? For what?
I know this is fate, this primal game
My home: this rut
But I can rise and brutalize
The ones who keep
Me down like scum, those free to chastise
The many... the meek

It begins tonight!

Give out or give in
Either way it's done
Bare fist is how I live
Bare fisted I've won
My hands are bloody
Bone is showing through
I've got no control
And nothing to lose!

Beg for mercy and you will find
That I am deaf
To your pleas, gut wrenching cries
For life... what's left
Finish the job and take you all
In one black night
So I may rest having answered the call
What's right is right

It begins tonight!

Give out or give in
Either way it's done
Bare fist is how I live
Bare fisted I've won
My hands are bloody
Bone is showing through
I've got no control
And nothing to lose!
