Bury me under mountains of stone
Throw me in face-first
Dig a deep grave then fill it in
With my body beneath the dirt

Death, are you there!
Hey! Swing the scythe!

I'm waiting for you
To take my life!

To me it's a gift to be alone
To enjoy what's left of my mind
Before I suffocate among the worms
It's all I've wanted... I could cry!

But the ground would soak up my happy tears
So I won't waste precious time
Instead I'll dwell on why I've prayed for the end
Victim of deceit and lies

Victim of wicked,
Twisted design!

A man with no hope
And a one-track-mind!

Better off Dead, better than alive
Fools will never learn
I'll get my answers when I'm through...
Beyond the point of no return!

Everyone has a tolerance
For how much shit they can take
I'm done taking yours, so I'll take you with me
I was your last mistake!

Better Off Dead!
