Dropped by the wayside
All what was left is done
The past is a lie
So don't you forget it

My first note in every song I sang
On every line I wrote
Let me tell you you're the sweetest thing
In every line I wrote in every song I sang

It's like falling in love
It's like falling in love to a break up song
But there is no way of knowing

Don't get me wrong
My first note in every line I wrote
In every song I sing
Have you forgotten what you've seen?
Trying to wipe the slate clean

It is me on that road
With your hair in my hand
On my way to nowhere
Till I am where we have never been
Till I am where we have never been
Till I am where we have never been

My first note in every song I sang
On every line I wrote
Let me tell you you're the sweetest thing
In every line I wrote in every song I sang

It's like, It's like falling in love
It's like falling in love to a break up song
But there is no way of knowing
Have you forgotten what you've seen?
Trying to wipe the slate clean

On my way to nowhere
Till I am where we have never been

On my way (on my way) to nowhere (to nowhere)
Till I am where we have never been
Dropped by the wayside
