I count the stars Â– that burn my eyes
I feel the origin of my mourn
I praise the presence of my death

Only thoughts remain to bleed until heavens torn Luminous spirits Â– bleed for me Â– speak for me

I drown in darkness Â–
I hear the menace of the silence
Cause demons weep

Chorus:
I fear to bleed alone in silence
All I see are the battered ones

I bleed your wounds and heal your scars

Now I feel the death behind
Last try to get off my pain

Only scars remain to bleed until heaven's torn
Entwined demons Â– kill for me Â– inhale for me

I drown in darkness Â–
I fear the menace of the silence
Cause demons weep

Chorus

Thy sunken precious flames,
Are in the eclipse of the autumn tears
Where the pale darkness is embraced

Chorus
