When I think of the rays of the sun
That shine so bright on me
Then I think on the sound of your voice
A rainbow over seas
It's like a fire in me (fire in me)

No one but you can make me sing
Wind on my face you're everything
Dream of the place I see within
It feels so right
I'm gonna feel the day begin
Wind on the waves you're everything
Warmth of the sand
Your here with me
It feels so right

When I reach for the touch of your hand
A wave comes over me
All I needed was someone who cared
And set my spirit free
It's like I finally can see

No one but you can make me sing
Wind on my face you're everything
Dream of the place I see within
It feels so right
I'm gonna feel the day begin
Wind on the waves you're everything
Warmth of the sand
Your here with me

So can you hear me?
Would you come on round when I am down
And it feels, like I'm drifting
But I realize the answers in your eyes
Yeah I realize the answers in you

No one but you can make me sing
Wind on my face you're everything
Dream of the place I see within
It feels so right (feels so right)

I'm gonna feel the day begin
Wind on the waves you're everything
Warmth of the sand
Your here with me
It feels so right
