I got a bright sun lightin my way
Well I've a woman and she's makin my day
There's a time when you open up a page of your life
And you're smiling

Those lines that are crossing your face they tell me a story
Tell me you've got the time

I'd a killer it was under my skin
It disappeared so that I could begin Searching my soul diggin up the earth that had fallin
Through my fingers

Those lines that are crossing your face they tell me a
Have you got the time
Come follow me, When your heads so heavy with the weight of the day
Come follow me, I can steal you while I'm on my way
Come follow me, It's a new day, ok
Don't swallow me down, don't swallow me down today

See the man with his head in the sand
He's got a white flag and a gun in his hand
It's a cold wind creepin up your back
And I know that you despise it
Those lines that are crossing your face they tell me a
Have you got it yet
Come follow me, When your heads so heavy with the
weight of the day
Come follow me, I can steal you while I'm on my way
Come follow me, It's a new day, ok
Don't swallow me down, don't swallow me down today
You can try to knock me down I said
You can try and try again

I recall how it feels to be alone
Gotta stand up, gotta be strong, move it right along Move along move along, you'll never knock me down

Knocked down, never knock me down

Those lines that are crossing your face they tell me a

Have you got the time

Come follow me, When your heads so heavy with the
weight of the day

Come follow me, I can steal you while I'm on my way

Come follow me, It's a new day, ok

Don't swallow me down, don't swallow me down today
