I burnt the past, my previous nights
Shattered memories as well
Sorrows and voices, unfair wishes
And I left all open wounds aside

I burnt the past, my previous nights
Dreams and nightmares cast in the fire
Burning tears, lots of lies
All seem like a silent movie I no longer watch

OPA!
I set on fire
Everything that's old
I will change everything - OPA!
And I'll shout it out loud - OPA!
Let bygones be bygones, let's start all over again -
OPA!

I burnt the past, my previous nights
And I start from scratch, even if you don't want it
Burning tears, lots of lies
I paid all my dues

OPA!
I set on fire
Everything that's old
I will change everything - OPA!
And I'll shout it out loud - OPA!
Let bygones be bygones, let's start all over again -
OPA!
