[Verse 1: Rewind]

What is the price of life? Will you give it up for your family?

To support your kids? To get them something to eat?
Our country's not the best, of corruption and poverty blessed

And honestly... that's why we leave!

A check equivalent to $5 a day which is why Which is why we don't mind those $2 an hour in the USA

You see, our nations the poorest, so many diseases
So many dead bodies and roses I look back and ask myself, should I built caskets or be a flouriest?

[Hook: Baze]

It starts with a good-bye I pray it ain't forever
Suppose to end up on the side where it's better Met up with the other six, got a gallon of water just in case I need a drink

In this long journey better pack a quilt and some comfortable shoes

Cuz the cold desert nights won't do you any cool...

Uh they won't do you any cool

(2x)

[Verse 2: Rewind]

The states is the director... and every other country?... actors

But this ain't no acting meng, this is reality there could be some casualties but it's for my family

Republica! we ride in the yola 70 people ben montro monta

Depart at night 1 sun 2 moons can't believe my life will be better soon

Lost without water everybody know if you quench thirst gotta drink... piss on the boat

It's that time of month? hitting rock bottom and you might end up thrown over board

And did I mention? This moving life bout connections so how you texting? your faith being tested

If you survive the ride from DR to PR
You might still get rapped, kidnapped, and sold like toys we aren't

[Hook: Baze]

It starts with a good-bye I pray it ain't forever
Suppose to end up on the side where it's better Met up with the other six, got a gallon of water just in case I need a drink
In this long journey better pack a quilt and some
comfortable shoes
Cuz the cold desert nights won't do you any cool...
Uh they won't do you any cool
(2x)

[Verse 3: Rewind]

Couldn't find Moses so I had to settle for coyote to lead me to my promise land Escaping the south 7 people riding and hiding, crying and dieing in search for a better life It's like the underground railroad, this time
From Mexico to Arizona, no dime Rated 3grand and over, a lime April 23, 2010 welcome to the sour American Nightmare our sweet dreams is now over Sharpie, permanent, no white owl no burning it Bill 1070 passed and now in our presences our future be gone
Flying without rings no ones falling tonight, stand up wipe your tears, stop the cry Brewer might have burned our dreams but like the phoenix from ashes we'll rise!

[Bridge: Reina]

Let them hear our crysss (Why won't you wanna hear it?)
Oh, let them feel our pain (just feel it just feel it) Refuge for the nightttt (just for the night) but tomorrows another dayyy

[Hook: Baze]

(No, no, nooo they won't do you any cool)

Refuge for the nightttt but tomorrows another dayyyyyy
