Wait, take a look at yourself.
Tell me if you still think you're so great.
I will show you, you will fucking fail.
You've seen your last precious ray of light.
This is the score to your demise,
and you can't run or hide.
No you can't run or hide. You think this is all my fault. You're the fucking failure and you know it.
Good job burning every bridge.
Now you will pay for what you did.
Hope it was fucking worth it.
Run from all of this. Turn your back on me.
Keep praying that I won't live up to all of my dreams.
I'll be laughing when you bury yourself. Bitch, bury yourself
