I don't know why I continue to waste my time,
but this ends right now. I can see the fear in your eyes, I can see you're dead inside.
And I hope this tears you apart.
I am a monster, I feel nothing.
I don't know why i continue to waste my time,
but this ends right now. I can see the fear in your eyes, I can see you're dead inside.
And when you fuck your way to the top,
I will be there to shut you down.
This is what I've become. I am a monster,
I feel nothing. I am the master of deformity without a shameful conscience, demoralized by nothing.
Without the reigns of my blind decisions, amidst a plague is salvation within
