"The Sleeper"

Visit "The Sleeper" on MotoLyrics.com

So now I have come to be dead inside
And only a miracle could help me
I feel so blind and paralyzed
I wait for the tide
To wash me away

I will go on
Grab on and struggle
To find new ways here in this life
Waiting digging deeper 'til I find out how to survive

The clockhands are racing
The fuse set aflame
And burning my passions away
I'll choose to awake
I'll choose to glare
Before my light is drained

Before the light
Is drained from my eyes
I will choose to let it flow
I will choose to embrace this life
I'm not alone... !

REF:
And deep inside my weakened mind
The sleeper wakes from his slumber
To make the dream come alive
Change the ways and open up - my eyes

I awake...
