Hello!
Wake up
We got to face another day
Hello!
Get up
And play another losing game

We're coming up to devastate
All that we can't drag away
And all that you can do
Is step out of our way

We go on and on and on and on
We're all becoming one
We go on and on and on and on
We are the elements - of the swarm

REF:
Everything is about to change
We are one
We are part of a swarm
Everything is about to change
And we have to run to keep the pace
The sun is going down on you
But you can't escape the circle
You can't escape the swarm
You can't escape it

You're not
The one supposed to find another way
Become a part
Of their machine or you will fail

We only do
What we are told
By one we'll never see
It's all the same

Every day
We'll never get away

Can't you see
You can't escape it
Can't you see
You can't escape us

Too lifeless to live but too vivid to die
