Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling for you
Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling

You've been watching, you've been judging every move that I have made, Pointing fingers, always talking about the things, that I have said,
Big discussion, missbelieving, every signal you send out,
Where have you been, what have you done,
The same questions every night

Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling for you
Can you hear me

Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling for you
Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling

When did I give you any reasons to behave the way you do,
If I wanted to break out I would have left you long ago, yeah
You're the one I choose to be with, you're the one to share my bed,
If I wanted someone else I wouldn't give you all I have

Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling for you
Can you hear me

Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling for you
Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling (x2)
