I don't know why I'm
So caught up in covering up the past
After all this time I,
I thought I would be over you at last
But it kills me at night
I was hoping you'd give me a second chance
But I'm leaving it up to you
Leaving it up to you
And there's nothing that I can do
Cause I walked away when I said I'd stay
With you
No excuses so
I thought I'd make it better as I go
If I could go back in time I,
I wouldn't leave you waiting all alone
I lay awake late at night
I wish I had the courage to say no
But I'm leaving it up to you
Leaving it up to you
And there's nothing that I can do
'Cause I walked away when I said I'd stay
Leaving it up to you (I wanna come back home yeah)
I'm leaving it up to you (I wanna come back home)
And there's nothing that I can do
'Cause I walked away when I said I'd stay
With you
With you
With you
After all this time I try to understand this pain
No excuses so I find a reason to run away (to run away)
But I'm leaving it up to you
Leaving it up to you
And there's nothing that I can do
'Cause I walked away when I said I'd stay
Leaving it up to you (I wanna come back home yeah)
I'm leaving it up to you (I wanna come back home)
And there's nothing that I can do
'Cause I walked away when I said I'd stay
With you
With you
