So far away
There lies a place that I can't touch
I hide the pain
But it's still not enough

Time after time
I keep running in circles
I can't deny what is real

(You're the one)
You are the hurt inside of me
You are the one that makes me weak
(You're the one)
Shadows that crawl all over me
Swallow the light that lets me see

Have I fallen too far away, away?
(I keep running away)
(I keep running away)
(I keep pushing away)
Now that it's over, it's hard to stay sober again
You're the one, you're the one
(You're the one)

I lie awake
(I lie awake)
Inside the darkness I fall apart
I can't escape from your hold on my heart

Time after time
I keep running in circles
I can't deny what is real

(You're the one)
You are the hurt inside of me
And you are the one that makes me weak
(You're the one)
Shadows that crawl all over me
Swallow the light that let's me see

Have I fallen too far away, away?
(I keep running away)

(I keep running away)
(I keep pushing away)
Now that it's over, it's hard to stay sober again
You're the one

Running in circles, still findin' my way
(You're the one)
I will live for tomorrow and not yesterday
But I can't deny what is real

(You're the one)
You are the hurt inside of me
And you are the one that makes me weak
(You're the one)
Shadows that crawl all over me
Swallow the light that let's me see

(You're the one)
You are the hurt inside of me
And you are the one that makes me weak
(You're the one)
Shadows that crawl all over me
Swallow the light that let's me see

Have I fallen too far away?
(I keep running away)
(I keep running away)
(I keep pushing away)
Now that it's over, it's hard to stay sober again
You're the one, yeah
