Your sorrow they adore, made to fuel the riot Falls can rotate over, thrown down a revolution

Will dead fears, on our event horizon, on the day

I know I, can't contain this, is it true that, they say nothing, but a lie

Nothing true lies in that mind

Can't we just save us, it's taken out on, this head but,

Stand

Up and try and fight the way through the endless web, of untruths spun around, of untruths spun around, us in this world

They just have the worst intent, look to the skies, see what your eyes find

I stand

I take sight, out of mind but, we've, seen so much we go blind, so break that state of mind, down and see just what lies behind

--- "View the sky, see what your, eyes will find" --- No forgive, ness in their, empty hearts, this life we live is, no more than fantasy, stuck in side the, nightmare state and can hardly tell how,

Is it our true reality our, reality

I take sight, out of mind but, we've, seen so much we
go blind, so break that state of mind, down and see
just what lies behind
