I am the eye of the hurricane.
I hear your cries and i feel no pain.
I wash away the hurt and broken chains.

After all these years your heart's so cold to me.
give me all the things that you don't need,
fill me up with the air you breathe,
If i ever see the day, that you don't need me,

Use me up, cut me dry, shut my mouth, say goodbye.
I'll let go of what i know. Break my world.

I sit inside of an empty wound.
Your heart is heavy and it's lonely too.
I gave you more, then i'm over you.
After all this time youre eyes are cold to me.

give me all the things that you don't need,
fill me up with the air you breathe,
If i ever see the day, that you don't want me,

Use me up, cut me dry, shut my mouth, say goodbye.
I'll let go of what i know. Break my world.

Break my world.
