I gotta believe yesterday I've lived.
I gotta believe tomorrow I will live.
"I love you." It's my true intention from my soul

Tanpopo on the concrete cheers me.
Coming out powerfully being all alone.
"I love you." It's my true intention from my soul.

I can't throw away my belief and dream.
I can't throw away my special life.
I can't throw away my this feeling.
I want to believe myself.
