

The Phone by Vivian Green

"No Sittin' By The Phone"

Visit "No Sittin' By The Phone" on MotoLyrics.com

[Verse 1:]

We used to sit over there
That was your favorite chair
But now I sit here alone
I can still smell your scent
So fresh in my head
Still feel you kiss me goodbye
I washed clothes today.
Found some of your garments
Guess you forgot them when you left
Took out the trash as you would
And dined by myself
Guess I better get used to this

[Hook:]

We used to sit over there
That was your favorite chair
But now I sit here alone
No use crying bout it,
I'll have to do without it
And no I won't sit by the phone

[Bridge:]

Oooo it's not like you did me right
I was just comfortable and used to you
Now I see, I must first love me
And maybe Mr. Right will come strolling along

[Hook]

Visit The Phone by Vivian Green page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.