"In Search Of A Rose"

Visit "In Search Of A Rose" on MotoLyrics.com

Where will I wander and wander nobody knows
but wherever I'm going I'll go
in search of a rose...

Whatever the will of the weather and wether it shines or snows wherever I'm going I'll go
in search of a rose...

I don't know where it's found
but I don't mind...
As long as the world spins around I'll take my time...

I'll savour the softness of summer
I'll wrap up when winter blows and wherever I'm going I'll go
in search of a rose...
